

ALFALFA-QUALITY FORAGE AT A FRACTION OF THE COST

DOMESTICATED KOCHIA can equal or surpass alfalfa in TDN, protein and tonnage, but at a much lower seeding cost and with very little water. With the same water, DOM-KO Brand Domesticated Kochia can produce up to two-and-a-half times the forage produced by alfalfa with a protein level up to 22 percent. Stocking rates are greater than for alfalfa and there is no hazard of bloat.

DOM-KO Domesticated Kochia is highly drought resistant, yet responds well to both limited and intensive irrigation and uses water most efficiently. It produces a highly palatable, leafy forage that is suitable for grazing, hay, greenchop or ensilage.

It can be seeded aurally at low seeding rates very early in the spring. DOM-KO Domesticated Kochia is unaffected by spring frost and will establish so quickly that you'll have no problem with weed infestation. And you'll be grazing it by the time you would ordinarily be planting haygrazer.

Five years of selection and adaptation make DOM-KO Brand Domesticated Kochia a superior strain which is taller and more palatable and which responds well to management.

Call now and order seed.

Canada Proposes Law to Regulate Imports of Beef

"Broadly parallel with the revised U.S. Meat Import Law," would provide authority to set quotas on beef imports based on the average level of imports in the 1971-75 period, Whelan said.

The quotas would be adjusted annually to take into account changes in the amount of beef consumed in Canada and in the level of cows and heifers slaughtered. Factors such as the supply and price of other meats and restrictions affecting cattle or beef trade with other countries would also be considered.

Whelan said import controls would serve the interests of both producers and consumers by helping to stabilize supplies and prices. The legislation is counter-cyclical in nature. "If supplies of Canadian beef are falling, import quotas would be automatically raised and vice versa," Whelan said.

An advisory committee with representatives from the beef industry and consumer groups would be set up to advise the minister of agriculture on matters relating to beef import controls.

Probably the most correct bull in the sale. His dam has produced us 10 calves in 10 years. If they don't produce — they don't stay in our herd.

BWB Timberline 879 — Born 2/11/78, this Timberline son out of a Riverby bred dam had a 205 day weight of 815 lbs. and on 11/1/80 weighed 1,715 lbs.

BWB Timberline 870 — Born 1/28/79, this Timberline son had a 205 day weight of 830 lbs. and a weight on 11/1/80 of 1,800 lbs. He is out of the dam of Rocky Duke 711, a champion in his own right, and of BWB Carson 480, a junior herd sire at Billy Harry Brangus. This 6 year old cow has had 4 calves, all bulls, who have had an average weaning weight of 857 lbs. As others have said, TNT probably best describes him!

Farm Costs

abandoned by the incoming Reagan administration.

To further aggravate the thinking of feeders is the fact that the November farm prices for meat animals was down 3.7% from October, but was only 1% under 1979. Mid-November beef cattle prices averaged $59.50 per cwt., a drop of $2.20 from the October average for the entire month. Calf prices were at $1.90 to $2.90 per cwt. Hog prices at $45.30, were down $1.90 from the month before.

The index on prices received for feed grains and hay increased 5.6% from October to 282, up 37% from a year before. All commodities except hay increased in price. Corn at $3.20 a bushel was up 21 cents, and sorghum was up 20 cents to $5.82 per cwt. Barley averaged $3.05 per bushel, up 24 cents from last month, while oats at $1.80 increased 16 cents. Hay brought $73.80 per ton, down $1 from a month before.

The index on oil-bearing crops at 304 increased 10% from the previous month and was 35% above 1979. Soybeans at $9.42 per bushel were up 74 cents and peanuts, at 25.8 cents, increased 4.8 cents per pound. Cottonseed prices averaged $133 per ton, an increase of $8, and flaxseed was 27 cents higher at $7.37 per bushel.

The mid-November index of prices paid for replacement livestock at 283 partially offset the higher feed index. The livestock index was 2.1% lower than a month ago and 2.1% lower than last year. Feeder cattle and calf prices declined $1.50 per hundredweight, while prices for other replacement livestock were slightly higher.

Recent signing of a new commodity agreement with Mexico in the six to eight million metric ton range will affect largely grain sorghum, corn, soybeans and wheat. This agreement makes Mexico a $2 billion agricultural market for the U.S., according to Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland. Another growing export market is China. U.S. agricultural exports to China this year were in the neighborhood of $2 billion, double last year's total. Predictions of a $4 market in China by the mid-1980s are predicted.

Tighter supplies of feed grains are being predicted by the trade and actual shortages may develop before the 1981 crops are made.

Texas Farm Bureau Re-Elects Officers, Lists Policy Aims

and state policies and national recommendations for 1981 were adopted at the group's 47th annual meeting which ended here Dec. 8.

Carol Chaloupka, Dalhart, was elected to his seventh one-year term by voting delegates who also re-elected the following state directors for a two year term: S. M. True, Jr., Plainview; Joe Fisher, McKinney; Vester Smith, Longview; Calvin Ruster, Gillette; J. H. Day, Odessa; and George White, Harwood.

After the convention adjourned, S. M. True, Jr., Plainview, as vice president; and Donald Hebert, Waller, as secretary-treasurer.

The 1980 delegates, representing 28,000 member families, listed four requirements they want in any new program enacted after 1981 when the provisions of the present farm bill expire.

These requirements include maintaining or increasing crop target price of loan levels (and adjusted annually to reflect production cost increases), letting loan rate remain at 75 percent of the target price, no cross-compliance, and determining set-aside acreage by formula based on supply and projected demand.

In other national policy action, the delegates in an obviously conservative vote, voted against disaster loan programs and the emergency livestock loan program. They were for the present crop disaster loan program, but voted against continuing it indefinitely.

On state policies, delegates said TFM will support a reappointment plan in the coming Legislature which would maintain the strength of the established rural House districts, while approving Senate seats on some basis other than strictly population.

They also supported the right of initiative and referendum with certain exceptions.

Adopted resolutions on state matters, delegates adopted the following:

— Approved resolutions dealing with national issues are recommendations to the American Farm Bureau Federation annual meeting which will be held Jan. 21 in New Orleans.

On state matters, delegates adopted the following:

— Sold voters should be able to read and write English, and furnish proof of U.S. citizenship. They also wanted laws printed in English.

— Would prohibit non-alien residents from owning land in Texas, and limit alien ownership to 49 percent of total title.

— Wanted alcohol fuel exempted from alcohol tax.

— Favored county sales tax.

— Opposed uniformization of public employees.

— Favored using foreign labor in agriculture when labor is not available.

The delegates approved recommendations for national policies that:

— Would exclude playa lakes and wetlands in definition of navigable waters with determining authority over navigable waters resting with Corps of Engineers.

— Oppose embargo of farm products when there is a total embargo on all U.S. exports.

— Would exempt farmers from farm labor contractor registration.

— Would exempt farmers from farm labor contractor registration.

Act when they are hiring solely for their operation.

— Favor beef promotion programs financed by voluntary check-offs at first point of sale.

— Support full research, development and financial assistance for production of agricultural alcohol.

— Call for decrease in welfare spending, except aid to elderly, blind, and disabled.

— Would repeal windfall profits tax.

— Membership in the American Farm Bureau Federation passed the three and one-quarter million mark when the year's final figures were released here today by Robert Delano, AFBF president.

With 3,297,224 member-families in 2,842 counties in 49 states and Puerto Rico, Farm Bureau is by far the largest of all general farm organizations.

Membership surged by 98,598 new members in 1980, making this the 20th consecutive year of continuous, substantial growth, Delano said.

The 62-year-old American Farm Bureau is a voluntary, dues supported federation of affiliated state Farm Bureaus.

Illinois Farm Bureau, with 280,544 member-families, edged out Indiana this year as the largest state Farm Bureau. Five other states have memberships exceeding 200,000 — Indiana, 276,308; Texas, 269,218; Alabama, 231,590; Tennessee, 213,031; and Kentucky, 212,580.

State Farm Bureaus with 100,000 or more members include North Carolina, 188,064; Iowa, 147,140; Mississippi, 134,837; Georgia, 125,852; Kansas, 110,280; and Arkansas, 107,835.

TEXAS RED ANGUS NEWS

Red Angus Herdbook Revisions Made in National Convention

Dallas — More than 200 members at the 217th Annual Convention of the Red Angus Association of America here Oct. 9-11 updated the association's by-laws to guarantee separate herd books for the 100% Red Angus referred to as Category 1-A; the 1-B herdbook for 87% through 99% Red Angus; and Category II herdbook for 0% to 87%.

Red Angus, thus preventing the association to "open" its herdbook. Individual state associations will decide whether to show Category 1-B cattle in the same class with Category 1-A entries. Matching funds will not be withheld from state organizations electing to show the two categories together.

Red Angus To Show in San Antonio, Houston

The Texas Red Angus Association will again support the San Antonio and Houston stockshows in 1981, according to Clifford Halfmann of Rowena. Their support and participation will go to the San Antonio Junior Steer Show on Feb. 14, and the Junior Heifer Show on Feb. 15; and the Red Angus steer show at Houston March 5; and the Red Angus Heifer Show on March 7.

bulls on official performance test started Nov. 7, at the Luling Foundation, Luling, Texas.

The Red Angus are among 104 bulls representing 14 breeds in the test. Consignors of the Red Angus bulls are: Owen Kelle, Inez; Triple R Ranch, Garland; Walker Bros., Eagle Lake; Hugh D. Sheridan, Houston; Bobby Nabours, Temple; Clark McKelvey, Justin; Harmony Hill Farm, Navasota; and Joe Morgan, Webster.

E. H. and L. L. Walker Find Red Angus Easy to Handle

Eagle Lake, Texas — E. H. and L. L. Walker are brothers who are in the Red Angus breeding business and in Eagle Market, a grocery store and meat processing and marketing business here.

"They were raised in a commercial cattle producing family, but switched to registered Red Angus in 1977, and now keep a herd of 50 to 60 producing cows. They went to Columbus to look at and possibly buy about five heifers and a bull from Nick Mainer, but they liked Mainer's Red Angus so well that they invited him to "call us if you ever decide to sell the herd."

In a few days, Mainer did call to say that he had decided to sell his herd, so the Walkers got into the Red Angus business with a herd established and developed by one of the original Red Angus breeders and a director of Texas Red Angus Association. With a start of some of the top cows of the breed representing most all of the top Red Angus bloodlines, the Walkers have continued to upgrade. One result has been their show ring success. One of their bulls, NM Umpire 318, a bull out of a double-bred "373" daughter, won his class in his first showing. At the recent National Red Angus show at the Texas State Fair, they had a heifer that took fourth in her class, and bulls that placed first and fourth in their classes.

Elmer House Sets Beefmaster Herd Reduction Dec. 19

Three Rivers, Texas — Elmer House Beefmasters will hold a herd reduction sale Friday, Dec. 19, 1980, beginning at 1 p.m. at the Live Oak County Fairgrounds between George West and Three Rivers on Highway 281.

National Western Red Angus Plans Announced

Denton, Texas — Plans are being finalized for the National Red Angus show to be held "on the hill" in Denver, during the National Western Stock Show. Judging date for the show will be Saturday, Jan. 17, 1981, starting at 8 in the Stadium Arena. Following the show of breeding cattle "on the hill," will be the National Red Angus Sale of inspected "Something Special" cattle at 8 in the Beef Palace Arena.

President Roy Beeby, Marshall, Okla., urged Red Angus breeders to get their entries into the national office as early as possible. Deadline for entries will be Dec. 1, 1980. Breeders wishing information on entering cattle in the National Sale, are reminded to contact Jim Leachman, Leachman Cattle Company, 3185 Sycamore, Billings, Mont. 59102, sale manager, for the "Something Special" sale. Breeders interested in showing and selling pens of three bulls are urged to contact Doug Anderson, Panhandle Cattle Co., Lakeview, Nebr. 68851, Show and Sale Manager for the activities "down in the yard."

President Beeby also stated that the judge for the National Red Angus show will be Dr. Bill Abel, Kansas State University, Manhattan. There will be a "banquet" get-together and dinner in the National Western Club, following the sale on Saturday, Jan. 17, 1981, at 6 p.m.

The Walkers have semen for sale at Elgin Breeding Service, Elgin, Texas, on the Umpire 318 bull; and on Choctaw 219, a son of 6203, out of a double-bred Red cow that weighs 1,550 pounds. They also have young bulls and heifers for sale at the ranch.

E. H. does most of the looking after and showing of the cattle, and his brother looks after the business in town.

E. H. says he handles the cattle in the pens and works the herd by himself, with only occasional temporary help, or when the service of a veterinarian is necessary.

"It's a pleasure working and running these cattle because of their gentle disposition," he said. He added that gentleness is a contributing factor to the Walker's almost 100 percent calf crops, and he believes the higher percentage calf crops linked with the good milk production of the cows enables them to raise and market many more pounds of beef than would be possible with most other breeds of cattle.

Texas-Oklahoma Beefalo Assn. Meets December 6

Kington, Okla. — The Texas-Oklahoma Beefalo Association met Dec. 6, 1980 at the Lake Texoma Lodge. There were 90 members and wives present at the meeting. Angus Mims introduced guest speaker, Bob Plummer, a well known quarter horse breeder and auctioneer. He spoke to TOBA members on how to set up a production sale. The Board of Directors met Friday night to discuss the changes that could be brought before the general membership meeting. Some of the recommendations were: amending parts of the by-laws and the withdrawing of TOBA affiliation with the World Beefalo Assn. and increasing the Board of Directors from 9 to 11. The Board also recommended to place its affiliation with the newly formed International Beefalo Association. All of these recommendations were passed by the TOBA membership.

The International Beefalo Association was formed by Ray Arnett. Arnett was formerly the World Beefalo Association, Executive Vice-President. There were four new directors elected to the Board of TOBA. The new directors are: Eva Johnson, Hallettsville, Texas; Joe Isch, Reydon, Okla.; Lester Smith, Kingwood, Texas and Amos Standard, Henderson, Texas.

The TOBA membership voted not to have a production sale in 1981. The group is looking to a sale in 1982.

AVOID CHANGING WELL LEATHERS FOR MANY YEARS

Perma-cups are molded urethane, more wear resistant than nylon. Perma-cups will outlast leathers 10 to 1. Their tapered design allows only 1/8" wearing, instead of 5/8" of a leather. Much less friction for easier pumping extends cylinder life greatly. Perma-cups must be used in a good or new cylinder, as they do not swell. Install Urethane Perma-cups, Urethane Check-balls, and Urethane Pump Rod-guides, and don't pull that well for many years. Thousands are in wells that have not been re-leathered in 9 years! All are available in standard cylinder and pipe sizes. Write or call for our catalog. We ship same day order is received. This is our 30th year serving ranchers.
